

FAQ

1. How is the course conducted?

The first half of the course is conducted first online to study theory. Latter half part is conducted on site for practical training. The period is however flexible according to background knowledge of premedical and acupuncture subjects. Each individual can discuss period allocated to theory and practical.

2. Can I practice acupuncture after this course?

Unique part of this course is highly practice oriented. Students will be exposed to treatment of wide range of diseases. Every individual with previous degree or diploma or even fresh students will be able to practice acupuncture with confidence.

3. How can I get a certification?

Student will provided certification attendance of practical training.

4. Will I be able to practice legally after acupuncture certificate course ?

Each state has its own rules to practice acupuncture. You need to confirm from your local authority of your practice. At present -

- A) You can practice anywhere in India except Maharashtra and West Bengal.
- B) You need to have a diploma or degree recognized by the Maharashtra University of Health Sciences and West Bengal.
- C) Doctors, Diploma or Degree holders and Licentiate Acupuncturists form anywhere in world including India can get practical training from this institute.

5. Will I be provided accommodation?

Course fee does not include accommodation. You will be helped to find comfortable and economical accommodation and food facilities. Nashik is very pleasant and peaceful place to stay.

6. Can I learn Acupuncture online?

You can have acupuncture training online for theory part of acupuncture to some extent. This being clinical subject, onsite training is essential.

7. Who can practice acupuncture in India?

As per government of India order anyone who has been trained appropriately can practice acupuncture. Here exception is Maharashtra and West Bengal where acupuncture council exists for regular registrations of acupuncturists.

8. How can I learn Acupuncture in India?

You can learn acupuncture in this institute or degree or diploma courses from councils as mentioned above.

9. How can I get Certification?

Yes, we provide certification to enable you to practice anywhere except Maharashtra and West Bengal.

10. How to learn acupuncture in India?

There many acupuncture training course in India but ours combines acupuncture training online and practical training course together.

11. How to study acupuncture in India?

As already stated above acupuncture diploma course in India, including traditional Chinese medicine training is available in Maharashtra and West Bengal. Besides our center also provides training to enable practice acupuncture as stated above.

12. How to become acupuncturist?

You need to get training in premedical subjects and other knowledge of basics of acupuncture. It has to follow with solid practical knowledge. You must fulfil laws of land.

13. How can undertake acupuncture training course in China?

Short traditional Chinese acupuncture courses taught in China are very costly besides language barrier. Full graduate courses of three or four years involving traditional Chinese acupuncture courses are extremely difficult for every reason.